

Relationship between percent ground area shaded by tree canopy in midsummer and Et of young trees as a percent of Et of mature orchards.

Upper portion of curve from Drip Irrigation Management Cooperative Extension University of California Leaflet 21259. Lower portion below 10% shaded area coefficient based on light interception model. A discontinuity exists between the two methods at 10 % shaded area.